FERRIS.—On Wednesday, December 30, of pneumonia, Joseph D. Perrisis, in the 36th year of his age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the uneral, iron St. CORONERS' WORK YESTERDAY. Coroner Eickhoff yesterday held an inquest intethe cause of death of a child of an unmarried woman, named Kitty Etzel, of No. 269 Lexington avenue, who, in an affidavit made last Monday, charged Dr. charles De Moor, of No. 302 sixth street, with killing her child, the result of his amour with ner. She alieged in her amdavit, upon which the Doctor and his brother Herman were arrested by Detectives Bennet and Tremane, that the Doctor, on November 27, 1874, acted as her ac-coucher; that he was the father of the child as well as a girl now a year and a half old, and that he killed the former soon after its birth. The brothers De Moor nave been in the Tombs for several days, and were yesterday honorably discharged after Miss Etzel, whose beauty caused a sensation in the Coroners' office, had testified, as well as a very un-prepossessing looking friend of hers, named Annie Ermold, of the same residence. While the officials were awaiting the arrival of the German beauty. were awaiting the arrival of the German beauty, who had instigated the proceedings the doctor produced a photograph of Miss Etzel and exhibited it to the detectives and the crowd, and when she appeared and testified before a jury or seven gentlemen, three of whom were physicians, the impression left upon all was there was nothing in the case, and that the "beauty from the Rhine," would fail to convict the doctor. Such was the result, as the jury after being out a few minutes recorded (through its foreman Dr. George M. Schwerg) the following verdict: monia, Joseph D. Perris, in the 3sth year of his age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the nuneral from St. John's church, on Saturday, January 2, at one o'clock P. M.

ST. JOHN'S GUILD RELIEF FUND. The following additional contributions have been received by the Rev. Alvah Wiswall, Master of St. John's Guild, No. 52 Varick street, and paid over to Andrew W. Leggat, Almoner.

There are a number of old abandoned police station houses, markets and public outldings belonging to this city, some of them partially occupied and others uncared for and apparently going to decay. It would be interesting, pernaps, to learn how these are occupied, by whom and what is paid to the city by the occupants and whether some of them, if not all, could not be whether some of them, if not all, could not be better used as a shelter to the more respectable of the destitute peropie who have the alternative of perishing on the streets or oeing crowded into the police station loaging rooms, there to hall suffocate, standing or lying in close contact with the most fitting, vermin-intested vagrants. Would it not be well or some of our charitable citizens to look into this matter and provide in these unused city buildings, or elsewhere, suitable refuges for the worthy poor during the cold season and reduce the number of suicides and deaths from exposure. A comparatively small sum of money could in this way be made to do a vast amount of good in relieving unavoidable distress.
